

ADDRAN
COLLEGE OF LIBERAL ARTS

Department of History

Ph.D.'s 2013-2018

2018

Michael Burns, "War and Nature in Northern Virginia: An Environmental History of the Second Manassas Campaign"

Brett Dowdle, "Beyond the Pale of Human Sympathy": Utah and the Reconstruction of the American West, 1856-1890"

Brooke Wibracht, "The Texas Fence-Cutting Wars, 1883-1890"

2017

Lisa Barnett, "The Politics of Peyote: The Construction of Religious and Racial Identities in the Creation of the Native American Church, 1880-1937"

Jonathan Engel, "The Work and Experiences of Company and field-Grade Officers in the Army of the Tennessee, 1861-1865"

Andrew Forney, "The Federalist Empire: The Search for Stability in the Revolutionary Atlantic"

Jamalin Harp, "The Capital's Children: The Washington City Orphan Asylum, 1815-1890"

Meredith May, "Building a Business in the Bayou City: Houston and Women's Entrepreneurship, 1945-1977"

LeAnna Schooley, "Sightseeing in Texas, 1836-1916"

Miriam Villanueva, "A Cultural History of Panamanian Militarism, 1968-1986"

2016

Chad McCutchen, "Born of Pumas and Lions: Cultural Mestizaje in the Viceroyalty of Peru, 1532-1650"

2015

Ronald Burriss II, "A Higher Calling: The Lives of Addison and Randolph Clark"

David Grantham, "Remapping the Cold War: Argentine-Arab World Transnationalism, 1946-1973"

Beth Shalom Hessel, "Let the Conscience of Christian America Speak: Religion and Empire in the Internment and Resettlement of Japanese Americans, 1941-1945"

Luz Elvira Huertas Castillo, "Whistles & Clubs: The Institutional & Social History of the Police of Lima, 1890's - 1910's"

Robert Little, "Unfading Halo: The Untold Progressivism of Elihu Root"

Jonathan Steplyk, "Citizen-Soldiers and Killing in Civil War Combat"

2014

Amanda Bresie, "By prayer and Petition: The sisters of the Blessed Sacrament's Mission of Evangelization and Americanization, 1891-1935"

Elizabeth Sodek Moczygomba, "The Enduring First Lady of Texas: Ima Hogg's Influence on Historic Preservation in Texas"

Jessica Parker Moore, "Bursting to Speak My Mind: How Matilda Fulton challenged the Boundaries of Womanhood in Frontier Arkansas"

Jeffrey David Wells, "The Reform Press: The Journalists of the Farmer's Alliance and People's Party"

2013

Keith Altavilla, "Can We Call It Anything But Treason? Loyalty and Citizenship in Ohio Valley Soldiers"

Jensen Branscombe, "Clamping the Lid on the Melting Pot: Immigration Policy and the U.S.-Mexico Border, 1965-1986"

Rebekah Crowe, "Civis Americanus Sum: George Francis Train and the Meaning of Young America"

Brenda Fields Davis, "A Company of Three: Transatlantic Conceptions of Masculinity Tourism and the American West in the Early Nineteenth Century"

David Dennis, "The Nineteenth-Century Image of Louisiana"

David W. Grua, "Liabilities of Conquest: Wounded Knee and the Politics of Memory"

Samuel Negus, "Further concessions cannot be attained: The Jay-Grenville Treaty and the Politics of Anglo-American Relations, 1789-1807"

Christopher Siekmann, "Basta Ya!: Pan-Mayan Activism in 20th-Century Guatemala"

Miles Smith, "The Kentucky Colonel: Richard M. Johnson and the Rise of Western Democracy, 1780-1850"

Justin Solonick, "The Vicksburg Siege Considered as a Problem in Military Engineering"

Joseph Stoltz, "Victory As Never Crowned the Wars of the World": The Battle of New Orleans in American Historical Memory